

Dulwich High School of Visual Arts and Design

Principal Mr Ronald Miles International Student Coordinator Mr Shane Forrest

Address Seaview Street Dulwich Hill NSW 2203 Website www.dulwich-h.schools.nsw.edu.au

School motto Work Conquers All School population 617

Dulwich High School of Visual Arts and Design is an inner city coeducational school situated close to excellent transport facilities. The school is unique as it is the only government school in New South Wales providing a continuing program of achievement and excellence in Visual Arts and Design. The school has curriculum links with tertiary institutions with specialised art programs.

English as a second language (ESL)

ESL programs are taught across the junior years by experienced and caring staff

Languages taught

Japanese

Special programs

Wide range of electives in areas such as digital media, jewellery, robotics, web design, food design and animation • Visual arts exhibitions • Debating, drama, music • Vocational Education and Training (VET) courses • Street Art Club for budding graffiti artists • Young Lawyers (LEAPS) Mentoring program

Academic achievements 2009 HSC Results

Students achieve above the state average in a significant number of subjects • Approximately 60% of students go on to tertiary studies

Student support services

Free after-school Homework Centre with trained teachers to assist students • Peer tutoring program • Learning difficulties support teacher

Special facilities

Visual Arts complex with an art gallery, two art studios, a kiln and a digital classroom and photography darkroom • Individual studio space for senior students

Local area features The school is 5 km from Sydney. It is a highly multicultural, diverse and cosmopolitan area of the inner city. The school is close to many tertiary institutions such as the University of Sydney, University of Technology, Sydney (UTS), the National Art School, Enmore Design School and TAFE NSW Sydney Institute.