Location

- ISI Tokyo is located near a local shopping area, aiming for a community-based Japanese language school. It is in a side street of Takadanobaba, along the river, one step away from the exciting and busy main street in front of Takadanobaba station. It is conveniently located and is also surrounded by greens, by the Kandagawa-river. In the same building on the 3rd floor, there is a student dormitory.
- Takadanobaba is a popular area for students because of its livability. There are many universities and colleges, restaurants and grocery stores. Also there are parks, sport gyms, community halls and public library.
- It takes 5 minutes on foot, from ISI Language School.
